

Southern Southeast Regional Aquaculture Association (SSRAA)

SSRAA's mission is to enhance and rehabilitate salmon production in southern Southeast Alaska to the optimum social and economic benefit of salmon users.

Maintenance Manager

Southern Southeast Regional Aquaculture Association (SSRAA) is recruiting for full-time Maintenance Manager at the Neets Bay Hatchery, a remote hatchery located approximately 30 air miles from Ketchikan, Alaska. The Neets Bay Hatchery program includes approximately 140 million chum salmon and 3.5 million coho salmon. This position requires living on site in furnished subsidized rental housing. Utilities include but are not limited to: weekly mail and supply flights, satellite internet, and R&R hotel accommodations in Ketchikan. This position requires workplace flexibility to include maintenance duties at the hatchery and include some fish culture duties, as needed.

This position works directly under the Hatchery Manager and supervises two other maintenance positions. The ideal candidate can develop healthy working relationships with co-workers and have a willingness to learn and share knowledge and skills. Desired maintenance skills include advanced knowledge of: carpentry, welding, plumbing, electrical, mechanical, maintaining preventative maintenance records, use of hand and power tools, and project planning. The successful candidate must have or obtain a valid Alaska Driver's license. The job requires the ability to lift, carry, push, or pull 50lbs or more repeatedly, work in inclement weather, and inside around cold running water.

Annual salary range is $56,352-$76,395, DOE. Benefits include: health, dental, vision, life, long-term disability insurance, and participation in a 403b retirement plan. SSRAA is an equal opportunity employer. Applicants: email an application, cover letter, resume, and references to the email address below. Applications are available on our website www.ssraa.org. A job description will be provided on request.

This posting will remain open until filled. The start date for this position is negotiable.
