

Southern Southeast Regional Aquaculture Association (SSRAA)

SSRAA's mission is to enhance and rehabilitate salmon production in southern Southeast Alaska to the optimum social and economic benefit of salmon users.

Neets Bay Hatchery Seasonal Fish Culturist(s)

Full Time, Hourly

Southern Southeast Regional Aquaculture Association (SSRAA) is recruiting for two seasonal fish culturists at the Neets Bay Hatchery, a remote hatchery located approximately 30 air miles from Ketchikan, Alaska. The Neets Bay Hatchery program includes approximately 140 million chum salmon and 3.5 million coho salmon. This position requires living on site in a furnished bunkhouse. Provided benefits include but are not limited to: weekly mail and supply flights, satellite internet, satellite tv, and groceries. Work consists of fish culture and basic maintenance duties at the hatchery.

The ideal candidate has the ability to develop healthy working relationships with co-workers and have a willingness to learn and share knowledge and skills. Previous experience is preferred but SSRAA will train the right applicant. The job requires the ability to lift, carry, push, or pull 50lbs or more repeatedly, work in inclement weather, and inside around cold running water.

Pay is $17.41/hr to $20.50/hr, DOE. SSRAA is an equal opportunity employer. To apply go to SSRAA website www.ssraa.org or click on the URL below:

<https://recruiting.paylocity.com/recruiting/jobs/All/bbb1c014-9ee1-4222-9683-b69ca13c4557/Southern-SE-Regional-Aquaculture-Association>

These are summer/fall positions that start immediately and run through October. These posting will remain open until filled.

For more information, please contact:

Wayne Parsley, Manager
Neets Bay Hatchery
Email: waynep@ssraa.org
907-247-8790